

Table of Contents

- Introduction..... 7
 - Conventional Wisdom & Acquisition Wisdom.....8
 - Increasing Company Value for a Sale or Public Offering..... 24

- I. A Quick Overview of the Business Acquisition Process..... 27
 - Decide on Your Acquisition Goals (Chapter II)..... 27
 - Prepare a Target Profile (Chapter II)..... 27
 - Search for Acquisition Candidate(s) (Chapter III).....28
 - Evaluate Prospects (Chapter VI)..... 28
 - Assume All is True.....28
 - Valuation (Chapter VI)..... 29
 - Obtaining Further Information.....29
 - Non-Binding Proposal and Letter of Intent (Chapter VII)..... 30
 - Negotiations (Chapter VIII)..... 30
 - Due Diligence (Chapter XI)..... 30
 - Purchase & Sale Agreement (Chapter X)..... 31
 - Closing..... 31
 - After the Sale (Chapter XII)..... 31

- II. Define Your Acquisition Goals..... 32
 - Distribution Channels..... 33
 - Less Expensive R & D..... 34
 - Economies of Scale..... 34
 - Production Capabilities..... 35
 - Synergistic Products..... 37
 - Favorable Lease.....37
 - Trade Name, Trade Mark, or Brand Name..... 37
 - Location..... 37
 - Diversification of Client Base..... 38
 - Elimination of Competition..... 38
 - Planning the Acquisition..... 38
 - Acquisition Summary..... 40

- III. Finding Acquisition Targets..... 43
 - Businesses Actively for Sale..... 43
 - Brokers and other Intermediaries..... 45
 - Trade Publications & Associations.....46
 - Gray Area Sellers..... 47
 - Email.....49
 - Networking.....49
 - Private Equity Groups..... 50
 - Intermediaries..... 50
 - Special Situation: Buying a competitor..... 51
 - What’s a Merger? 52

- 56

IV. Why Sellers Sell.....	56
Reasons for Selling a Company.....	57
V. Seller Psychology.....	63
Mutual Suspicion.....	63
Past Reality Versus Future Potential	64
No One Else Can Run this Business	64
Concern for Employees.....	65
Concern for Customers.....	66
Owner’s Role And Status Going Forward.....	66
Will the Seller Really Sell?.....	66
Warning Signs.....	68
Sellers with Inflated Concept of Valuation.....	69
Beware Seminar Sellers.....	70
VI. Valuing a Company for Acquisitions.....	72
Capitalized Earnings Approach.....	72
Excess Earnings Method.....	73
The Earnings Multiplier.....	75
Cost to Create Approach (Leapfrog Start-up).....	76
Rules of Thumb Methods.....	76
Value of Specific Intangible Assets.....	77
Comparison to Public Company Multiples.....	78
Smaller Companies Carry More risk.....	79
Roll Ups.....	80
Evaluating an Acquisition Beyond the Financial Statements	80
Order Pipeline.....	81
Recurring Revenues.....	81
Management Team.....	82
Management Systems.....	82
Corporate Culture.....	82
New Competition.....	86
Fair Market Value of Assets.....	89
Customer Concentration.....	89
What is the Business Worth to You.....	89
Why It's A Mistake To Buy a Business Based On Projections.....	91
What to Offer Now That You Have Valued the Business	91
Marketplace Opportunities	92
VII. Deal Structure.....	97
Stock vs. Asset Sale.....	97
Bulk Sales Act and Asset Sales.....	98
Tax Consequences.....	99
Crafting an Offer	101
Letter of Intent.....	104
Price.....	105
Payment Terms.....	105

Seller Provided Notes	105
Payment in Stock.....	109
Deal Details	110
Customer Retention	111
Employment Contracts.....	111
Dealing with multiple owners	112
Purchase and Sale Agreement.....	112
.....	113
VIII. Negotiating the Deal.....	113
Think Like the Seller.....	113
Be Polite and Respectful from the Start.....	113
Do not Insult the Seller with a Low Ball Offer.....	114
Every Seller has other Deals Pending	114
Keep Emotions out of Negotiations.....	115
Look for Win-Win Negotiation.....	115
Impasse Busting-- Negotiate Terms	115
Don't Get Bogged down on Small Points	116
Don't Renegotiate Settled Points.....	116
Blame Lawyers, Brokers, Brothers, Advisors, Accountants.....	117
Chapter Summary.....	117
IX. How to Kill a Deal.....	118
Early Deal Killers.....	118
Later Deal Killers.....	119
X. Legal Issues.....	124
Stock Versus Asset Sale.....	124
Buying Unincorporated Companies.....	124
Bulk Sales Act.....	125
Liens and Encumbrances.....	125
Letter of Intent.....	126
Due Diligence.....	126
Purchase and Sale Agreement.....	127
XI. Due Diligence.....	135
Financial Audit.....	135
Payroll.....	135
Legal.....	136
Inventory.....	136
Employee and Customer Relations.....	136
Transitional Details	137
XII. After the Sale.....	138
XII. Common Mistakes	140
The Buyer's Sense of Rational Business Decision Making is the Same as Yours.....	140
This is Only About Money.....	140

Trying to Impress a Seller With the Size of Your Company.....	141
Insulting Seller Right from the Start.....	142
Not Setting Soft Barriers Early in the Process.....	142
Buying a Business Without Getting Title to Critical Assets.....	143
Using Racist, Sexist, Homophobic, or Offensive Language.....	143
Focusing Only on the Details that You Best Understand.....	144
Setting Inflexible Terms.....	144
Valuing Based on Comparables that are not Truly Comparable.....	145
Waiting Too Long to Issue a Non-Binding Proposal.....	146
Trying to Do Due Diligence Early in the Process.....	147
Overly Complex Proposals or Offers.....	147
After the Sale.....	148
Changing Too Much Too Soon.....	148
Under Utilizing Existing Management.....	148
Index.....	149